sick. It was a very sad time. A little later, some years, the land owners of the county became excited over the effort that was being mad to recover certain large tracts of land which had been sold for taxes, or which had become forfelted. They did not understand that the new state of West Virginia in a remarkable constitution adopted in 1872, had protected the diligent holder from those who would breath the breath of life in titles as dead as Caesar. In fact highly intelligent lawyers from other states cannot seem to comprehend yet that a tax payer can laugh at the pretensions of those who have not paid taxes on what looks like a good title. One of my boyhood secrets was the knowledge of a corner tree on the Huntersville road which was a standing corner to the Wilson 44,000 acres. It was pointed but to me with the distinct underout to me with the distinct underwas I to divinge the location of this corner if I did it might happen that surveyors would come in.
